To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Masresha Misganaw Abere, an expert tour guide of Lalibela, Ethiopia.

We worked with Mr. Misganaw Abere on a television segment that featured the rock hewn churches of Lalibela and the Genna celebrations that take place there each year. The television segment was titled "Built by Angels" and aired on CBS News' news magazine program, "60 Minutes." It debuted December 1, 2019 and has since re-aired multiple times.

Masresha helped us with research and logistics before and during our shoot in Ethiopia. Masresha served as one of our local "fixers" by coordinating communication and permissions with church officials and helping us navigate the historic site during our television shoot. He also served as a translator.

Masresha is a wealth of knowledge on all aspects of Lalibela. He is informed on the history, architecture and restoration of the churches and has deep connections to the church and local officials. He is kind, courteous and always a professional.

Based on our experience together, we recommend Masresha Misganaw Abere as a tour guide, local coordinator and translator.

Sincerely,

Nicole Young
